What you need to know to run an interior design business

How to use 2D, 3D and imaging software and draw by hand

How to protect yourself as an interiro designer

INTERIOR DESIGNER'S BUSINESS SCHOOL

Design

How to set up and run an interior design business

Art, architectural and design history

Space planning and how to create a layout

Present information visually to clients and other professionals

Develop a develop an ey experience des developing an eye for design

How to get past fear and gain confidence to run your own projects

How to market yourself as an interior designer

How to get consistent client and income

Decorative textiles, fabrics and finishes

Concepts, mood boards and how to design a space

Properties and psychology of colour

How to design with light and create a lighting plan

This is not an exhaustive list, depending on where you are starting in your career as an interior designer, you may need help in additional areas.